

KENNETH J. SALVATORE HUMANITARIAN SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Purpose: This scholarship award is to honor the life and memory of Kenneth J. Salvatore by providing financial aid to a student who has made a positive contribution toward the betterment of their community, Bound Brook High School, or their family with their involvement, service, volunteerism and demonstrated acts of kindness. Kenneth's family and friends are honoring his legacy with this scholarship.

Kenneth diligently dedicated his life to community service and spent his career in service to others. He worked at the American Red Cross for decades helping those in need and also taught swimming lessons to several generations of children in the Bound Brook community in which he resided in. He was an avid Board Member of the Bound Brook High School Hall of Fame & Alumni Association.

Kenneth was beyond proud of the town of Bound Brook and enjoyed spending his time giving back to others and making a positive impact in everyone's life. He will always be remembered for his caring attitude and by putting other's first and because of him the world was a much better place. Kenneth truly embodied the Bound Brook High School mantra of "Enter to Learn, Go Forth to Serve," in every aspect of his life.
